'Howards of Virginia' at Fox Sequoia

Cary Grant and Martha Scott, on the Fox Sequoia screen, tonight and Saturday give a vivid portrayal as "The Howards of Virginia," whose stirring romance flourished during America's most trying days, the struggle for freedom. Their youngsters are Richard Lyon and June Hedin, and important members of the cast include Sir Cedric Hardwicke, Alan Marshal and Richard Carlson. Frank Lloyd produced and directed the film for Columbia from Sidney Buchman's screen adaptation of Elizabeth Page's Literary Guild best-seller, "The Tree of Liberty." Of special interest to kiddies on this Saturday's matinee will be the stage appearance of Hollywood's three most important canine stars, Boots, Ann and Saddies, and their trainer, who will perform once only, at 2:20 p.m. Tonight is McNeil Furniture Night.

MRS. WILBUR SELLS HOME

Mrs. Sonia Wilbur of Atherton has sold her home at Selby Lane, and Stockbridge Ave. to Mr. and Mrs. Vincent C. Hobbs. The price indicated by stamps affixed to the deed was $16,000.

CHILDREN WILLED ESTATE

Petition for probate of the estate of George H. Zeh, who died Oct. 4, was filed here in the county clerk's office by a son, Carl Zeh, of 701 Chestnut St., San Carlos. The estate is valued in excess of $10,000. According to the will it is to be divided equally between the son and a daughter, Georgie Zeh Nehls, 609A Walnut St., San Carlos.

Grocers listed below are featuring salad and picnic foods with Best Foods Real Mayonnaise and other delicious Best Foods Products for summer menus.

If you haven't tasted Best Foods Real Mayonnaise before, why not make "Salad Celebrity Week" your time to get acquainted? You'll find it gives your family a new appetite for salads!

You see, Best Foods Real Mayonnaise is different from "Salad Dressing." It contains no starchy filler.
It is all mayonnaise—real mayonnaise—and doesn't turn watery when you add milk or fruit juices.

And this Real Mayonnaise tastes even fresher than home-made, for it is made with our own
"FRESH-PRESS" Salad Oil which we ourselves prepare fresh each day, as it is needed. Then, in our powerful double-whipper the ingredients are so completely blended that Real Mayonnaise, with all its home-made richness, is even lighter in texture than home-made,
and has a light, zesty flavor, free from oily taste.

MENLO PARK NEWS NOTES

MENLO PARK—Frank Gainer, the mosquito destroyer, returned from a deer hunt in Nevada this week, bringing with him the carcass of a big buck. He and his party of four killed three deer of the Silver State.

The new Rummymede Catholic Church will be dedicated Oct. 26 by Archbishop Mitty. The impressive ceremony will be attended by a large number from Menlo Park and Palo Alto. The Catholics of that community have worked hard to build the edifice and it will always be a monument to their splendid efforts and untiring energy.

The Menlo Food Market is enlarging its store space by removing the walls of an adjoining room which gives ample quarters for its growing trade. Every building on the block is now occupied.

Last Friday evening Marvin Taylor, son of Charles Taylor, formerly of Menlo Park, was married in the Stanford chapel before a large number of friends. Father and son are graduates of Stanford. Mr. Taylor Sr. has been an engineer in the employ of San Francisco for many years. Several of the large projects were handled by him.

The duck season opened Wednesday. The limit of 10 was secured on local marshes by Menlo Park hunters. Edward O'Keefe got the limit at the Colusa County Willow Gun Club property, in which he is interested, in a few hours. He reports that sprig and mallard are plentiful but the other northern birds have not yet arrived.

Harry Albright, the noted jockey and son of Mrs. H. Albright of Menlo Park, was married in New York last week. Young Albright has ridden many of the fastest horses in the East, winning many races in the past three years. He has appeared on nearly all the Eastern tracks.

The Kuck picnic grounds have been leased for five years to a syndicate which is to improve the grounds. The row of cottages is to be removed to give more space to picnickers. The hotel has not been included in the lease.

Eagles Urged To Aid Propositions 1 and 2

Redwood City Eagles were urged today to give their support to Propositions 1 and 2 on the November ballot. Richard O. Bell, chairman of the Eagles' social security committee, said that the fraternal order had aided in getting the measures on the ballot. They provide for repeal of amendments requiring applicants for aid and recipients of old age assistance to sign an agreement not to sell, transfer or mortgage their real property without the consent of the county board of supervisors.

The Eagles Friday discussed the appearance of Union Cemetery and directed Secy. Paul E. Lowe to ask city officials to take means to improve the cemetery. Initiation will be held next Friday night and on Nov. 15, with sponsors of candidates for membership these two months becoming eligible for a San Francisco Chinatown feed and trip.

There are no "national" holidays in the United States. Each state decides on its own observance.

Steed, Once Tried For Murder, Sued

George R. Steed, 23-year-old Burlingame garage employee who last June was tried for the murder of his father, Andrew, was sued for divorce here by his 18-year-old wife, Marjorie Evelyn, whom he married in Reno Dec. 30, 1938.

Because the plaintiff is a minor, the suit was filed through her mother, Mrs. Alta M. Spencer of Burlingame. She charged young Steed had treated her in a "cruel and inhuman manner." Murder charges against Steed were dismissed in June after a jury of 11 women and 1 man reached a deadlock. He had faced murder charges in connection with the Mar. 10 shooting of his 43-year-old father. The elder Steed died in Mills Memorial Hospital a short while after his son shot him in the chest with a shotgun in the bedroom at his home on Forrest View Ave., Burlingame.

Legion Plans For Banquet

Redwood City American Legion Post 105 today was completing plans for a birthday party Saturday evening and for participation in two parades Armistice Day.

National Defense will keynote the natal day festivities in the Cafe de Paris, scheduled speakers including Atty. Eugene D. Bennett of San Francisco, a Legion national defense commissioner, and Capt. J. H. Tilton of Atherton, chief survey pilot of Pan-American Airways who will relate experiences in charting clipper routes to the Orient.

Officers expected to attend the 21st birthday party of the post include William J. Farrell, department commander; J. K. Fish, department adjutant; Henry Welsh, 26th district commander. The Native Sons' Hill Billy Orchestra will play.

Thursday is the deadline for reservations which may be made at W. W. Hilton's jewelry store, Thompson's Barber shop, Southern Pacific depot, Charley Ward's cigar store in the post office.

Post leaders said the organization will march in Menlo Park Armistice Day morning and parade in Burlingame that evening.

Fewer Than Average Needy Aged Here

San Mateo County's favorable comparison in number of aged per 1000 population and in taxpayers' dollars contributed for their support was demonstrated today in a chart issued by the department of health and welfare.

The county's eight needy aged for each 1000 population is less than half the state average of 20, and more than six times lower than a north rural county,

Eighty per cent of the total area of Salvador is under cultivation ty, according to the chart. Comparing costs for support of elderly, non-working people, residents of this county pay only $4 annually, while those in the same north rural county pay $21 each on the average. Residents of an adjacent urban county contribute $9 per capita for the support of needy aged, while those in an East Bay county pay $8, twice the amount it costs San Mateo County taxpayers.

Guidance, Counseling Called Best Deterrents to Crime

Crime waves will be slashed and future penitentiary populations reduced if adolescent youth receives proper school guidance and counseling.

Thus Dr. H. A. Shuder, educational director at San Quentin prison Monday night placed in laps of educators and civic groups a solution for wayward youth.

"Give adolescent youth proper counseling and increase interest in the individual's welfare if you wish fewer future convicts," counseled the educator, speaking at a dinner meeting of the San Mateo County Teachers Association in Benjamin Franklin Hotel, San Mateo.

Only about 4 per cent of persons paroled return to prison, largely because when released they have sponsors taking an interest in their welfare, asserted Dr. Shuder.

More than 50 per cent of convicts released after serving full terms return to cells, he said, pointing out that such persons lack sponsors interested in their well being.

Not only schools, but civic groups as well should take deep interest in maturing youth, averred the educator. Such interest, he explained, produces best public interests and citizens.

"San Quentin's convicts rate well as a group on intelligence, 41 per cent having the equivalent of at least a 10th grade education," Shuder explained. "The majority of those convicts went wrong through not receiving right guidance or needed counseling during their adolescent years."

Approximately 3000 San Quentin convicts are enrolled in the prison's several hundred educational courses, he said. In addition, a number are taking correspondence work.

Miss Mildred Howard, secretary-treasurer and San Mateo Junior College instructor, described her July trip to the national association's convention in Milwaukee.

Jack Charnow played a violin solo, accompanied by Edna Wicht. Both are members of the Burlingame Elementary School Music Department.

L. D. Henderson, association president, announced the next meeting will be a day session Nov. 18 in Burlingame High School during the annual teachers institute.

San Carlos Club Sets Dance for November 2

SAN CARLOS — San Carlos Athletic Club today was speeding plans for a dance Nov. 2 at Devonshire.

George Collins, social chairman, revealed Tuesday during a club meeting in the San Carlos City Hall that plans for the dance were under way.

Club directors conferred with the junior membership relative to the Fall athletic program. The juniors have a basketball team and may place more quints in the field, directors intimated.

R.C. Residents Cast In Menlo Park Play

Redwood City is represented in the cast of "The Brat," which will be given by the Menlo Players Guild on Friday, Nov. 1, at Menlo Park Central School. Bob Birchanell and Katherine Morris were graduated from Sequoia High School and Jack O'Keefe lives in Redwood City.

Little Alyce Wickstrom is a real find in the title role. Watching her play the scared, slangy waif of the New York streets, it is difficult to realize that she is the mother of three little children. O'Keefe is in a role of the self-centered author of best sellers, a role entirely different from

William Parfitt Dies After Short Illness

Burlingame Dentist Captures Burglar

BURLINGAME — A burglar caught red-handed by Dr. Harry E. Foley, local dentist, in the act of robbing his office at 1229 Burlingame Ave., during lunch hour Tuesday, was subdued by Dr. Foley and delivered to the police department almost before the intruder could realize how badly his plans had misfired.

Dr. Foley took his captive to the police station where the man gave his name as Carroll Gill, 42, and said he was a laboratory technician in a San Francisco dental office.

A quantity of gold amounting to slightly less than $25 worth, from Dr. Foley's office, was allegedly found on his person.
